

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS,
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 4, 1885.

ROOMS FOR RENT.—Two upstairs rooms suitable for a small family. Apply to Mrs. John L. Ziegler in Belle Point.

Mr. Darsie exchanges pulpits to-morrow morning and night with Rev. C. H. Caton, of Harrodsburg. Mr. Caton is a talented minister.

The usual Easter celebration by the Ascension Church Sunday-school will take place to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Everybody is invited to attend.

Mr. John T. Gray has accepted the position of general business manager for Col. R. D. Allen at the K. M. I., and took charge on Wednesday. Col. Allen will hereafter give his time exclusively to his classes.

The protracted meeting which has been held by Rev. G. F. Bagby at the Baptist Church for the past four weeks has been a remarkably successful one, resulting in the addition of 100 to the Church. The ordinance of baptism was administered Wednesday evening to 29 ladies, and on Thursday evening to 21 ladies and gentlemen, who have united with the church upon profession of their faith. The meeting will probably be brought to a close to-morrow evening.

There are still more to be baptized this evening at the river at four o'clock.

Chas. H. Fisk, Esq., of Covington, Grand Sword Bearer of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, Knights Templar, was in the city last night for the purpose of paying an official visit to Frankfort Commandery, No. 4. At eight o'clock he was escorted from the Capital Hotel to the Asylum, in Odd Fellows Temple, by the Commandery, headed by the Frankfort Cornet Band, and after inspecting the workings of the Commandery and witnessing the conferring of the order of Red Cross by that body upon one candidate, an elegant banquet was partaken of. Among the distinguished members of the order present were Col. W. Larue Thomas, of Lexington, Grand Senior Warden of the Grand Encampment of the United States, Jas. M. Saffell, Deputy Grand Commander of Kentucky, and Horace M. January, Esq., of Maysville, Grand Pelet of Kentucky.

In going through some old papers last week, Dr. J. G. Hatchett found the original of the following annual return of Capt. H. Clay Harlan's company of the 22d Regiment of Kentucky Militia, made to Gen. Peter Dudley, Adjutant General, on the 10th of July, 1846:

Captain—H. Clay Harlan.
Lieutenant—Hugh Judge.
Ensign—John Loyd.

Sergeants—Geo. Cunningham, Ed. Samuel, Harry Brethitt, Wm. Hughes, John Harlan.

Corporals—James Harlan, L. Bacon, C. H. Allen, John Johnson, Jas. Fox. Privates—Geo. Vest, Sam'l. I. Major, Charles Tyler, H. Brown, G. Campbell, H. Campbell, Ben Johnson, J. W. Daniel, G. Suddith, Eugene Crittenton, J. Monroe, E. H. Taylor, Jr., Edw'd Judge, R. Hardie, Jas. Dudley, Hugh McBrayer, M. Hoekersmith, M. White, R. Wingate, J. Moore, Benj. Moore, Robt. Evans, —Gloar.

Gloar, Tom Shockley, Philip Coglan, Jas. Major, Wm. Holman, —Haydon, —Thomasson, James Gale, Jno. Page, J. Haly, S. Nool.

Many of those whose names appear on the roster have answered the last roll call; Fifth Sergeant Harlan is a Judge of the United States Supreme Court; Private Vest is a U. S. Senator from Missouri; Corporal Harlan is a prominent lawyer in Louisville; and but eight of them are now residents of this city and vicinity, viz: Sergeant Ed. Samuel and privates Henry Brown, J. Griff. Campbell, J. W. Daniel, Sam'l. I. M. Major, Silas M. Noel, Thos. Shockley, and E. H. Taylor Jr.

Among the list of supplies furnished them were brushes and picks, spare flints, shot pouches, powder horns, loose balls, and pounds of powder.

Mr. Robt. B. Franklin attended the meeting of base ball managers at Columbus, Ohio, on Thursday of last week, and placed the Frankfort Club of this city in the Inter-State League, and Frankfort will now be worked up into a base ball town. There are seven or eight clubs in the league, and we are to have forty-two first-class games here this season. The management of our home club have secured a strong nine and the season will begin here about the last of this month.

Personal.

Mr. Fred. Bagby left Wednesday for a visit to New Orleans.

Mr. Chas R. Gresham, of Gogginsville, Georgia, arrived in this city Wednesday morning on a visit to relatives, and will very probably locate here.

Mrs. Torbett Coryell, of Lambertville, New Jersey, who has been visiting relatives in this city for several weeks, left Thursday afternoon for New Orleans.

Gov. Knott and wife, Mr. Wickliffe Chapman, wife, Misses Lizzie Rodman, Belle Hensley, and Monte Tate, received Monday evening from a trip to New Orleans.

Mr. Ed. A. Tattie, formerly Assistant State Librarian, was in the City Thursday on his way from his home in Wayne county to Fort Scott, Kansas, where he expects to locate.

Miss Flora B. Warner, who has been visiting her father's family in this city the past week, left Tuesday afternoon for Ann Arbor, Michigan, where she is attending medical lectures.

A Remarkable Escape.

Mrs. Mary A. Daily, of Tunkhannock Pa., was afflicted for six years with Asthma and Bronchitis, during which time the best physicians could give no relief. Her life was despaired of, until the last October, when she was sent to Kline's "New Discovery," when immediate relief was felt, and by continuing its use for a short time she was completely cured, gaining in flesh 50 lbs. in a few months.

MARRIED.

At Hindale, Ill., at the residence of the bride's parents, Geo. and Anna F. Bassett, Dr. W. T. Bassett to Miss Annie Nutt, daughter of Dr. L. P. Haskell.

The bride is a young woman of great beauty and good character. Her dress was white, and looked charming in white mall and natural orange blossoms. After congratulations, an elegant collation was served. A reception followed in the evening. Among the many who were present were the Chautauqua Circle, of which both are members; an ovation was extended by them to the newly wedded couple.

The presents were numerous and costly, but we have only space to make mention of a handsome silver lamp and the Chautauqua Circle and a beautiful hammered copper water service presented to the group by the officers and clerks of the Merchants National Bank.

We feel assured that Mr. Barr will receive the hearty congratulations and good wishes of his numerous friends here.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Bridgeport.

Farming has commenced in earnest. Charlie Dupuy is the boss mule rider. The scarlet fever scare in this vicinity has about subsided.

Little Nellie, daughter of Billie and Nada Kirk, is quite sick.

To wade (Wade) seems to be the favorite amusement in this vicinity.

Singing at C. H. Parent's to-night at 7 o'clock. All are invited to attend. Billie Roberts' children have recovered from the measles. No new cases.

A Sunday-school will be organized at Franklin Church to-morrow at nine o'clock.

Miss Lucy Julian has returned from a visit to the World's Exposition, New Orleans.

Mr. J. D. Parent, who has been very much indisposed recently, has about recovered.

The pike question seems to be agitating the public mind in this vicinity at present more than anything else.

Mr. Oscar Wade and Miss Lillie Scroggins have returned to their home in Bagdad from a visit to this place.

Aun Sallie Roberts and her daughter, Miss Bettie, have removed to Bagdad, where they will reside in the future.

We understand the school-house will actually be built this spring. Also a pipe connecting this place with Benson's Rail for Bridgeport.

Mr. Samuels, of Jacksonsville, is the grandfather of his grandson, Mr. Jim Hamer. The old gentleman is quite active for one of his age, being in his ninetieth year.

The wheat prospect is being very gloomy, farmers in some instances are plowing the land for corn. Having examined some fields, we are convinced, however, the yield will be better than was at first anticipated.

A lady of this place, who had occasion to enter Selbert's Jewelry store, while in Frankfort last Tuesday, placed on the counter a bundle of goods, while she waited to pay for them. A woman in the store at the same time suddenly disappeared and with her the bundle. An attempt to recover the stolen property was made but without avail.

Antioch.

"Old Boreas" was out in all his glory last Monday.

Mr. Jake Denny and wife were out last Sunday visiting friends.

The school in the Lewis district will reopen next Monday. T. Hunter teacher.

Messrs. Jas. D. Moore and Thomas Deekins, of Belle Point, were out last Sunday.

Mr. Willard Semones has moved to the widow Harrod's place, near Pleasant Ridge.

Mr. T. D. Hale has sold about 400 bushels of oats in the last two weeks. Pretty good for a country store.

John Rossell sold his gray horse, George, last Monday, and bought a fine bay mare on Tuesday of Judge G. W. Craddock.

Mr. Henry Finchel, with his fair companion, lighted up these dreary solitudes last Sunday with their sunny smiles. Come often, please.

Mrs. Florence Rogers, of Woodford county, and Miss Carrie Finnel, of Frankfort, spent several days this week with their sister, Mrs. T. D. Hale.

A large crowd assembled at Antioch last Sunday to pay the last tribute of respect to Mrs. Kittle Moore. Elder J. K. P. Smith preached the funeral from Rev. xiv. 13.

We regret to learn of the accident to Mrs. Frank Smith, near Harveland. She was on her way to visit a sick neighbor and got upon the fence at Mr. Curran Moore's to get upon her horse, when the rail turned, throwing her to the ground, breaking one of the bones in her left arm just above the elbow. Dr. Ben. Duval, of Frankfort, set the fracture, and we are glad to say that she was doing well at last accounts.

FRANKFORT, KY., March 31, '85.
Editor Roundabout:

Dear Sir: I had intended to answer Mr. Crutcher last week, but as he has just returned from New Orleans, and his pocket was suffering from the consequent drain upon it, I thought I would "give him a rest." My Editor, it is perfectly evident that Mr. C. never saw the other side of the Controversy Court or I certainly could not have made the assertion that we had issued bonds to bear eight per cent. interest.

No such bonds have ever been, or have the same been proposed to be issued; but we did agree to pay eight per cent. on the outstanding debt of the county up to and including 1884. Now, sir, as Mr. Crutcher has succeeded in his evident purpose of getting his name in print and has shown himself capable of being placed in the same position that Joe Blackburn and William E. Marshall compared him to a billy goat, I decline a further discussion of the matter of a new jail.

Truly, &c.,

J. W. BOHANNAN.

Malaria Poison.

The drought in Southwest Georgia has sprung dried up wells, and we were compelled to use water from the creek on the plantation. The result was that all were troubled with chills and fever. I carried with me several bottles of Swift's Specific, and as long as I took it, I had perfect health. As soon as I ceased taking it, I, like the rest, was affected with chills and fever. When I resumed its use, it was all right again. We have used it in our family, as an antidote for two or three years, and have never known it to fail in a single instance.

W. C. FURLOW.

Sumter Co., Ga., Sept. 11, 1884.

A Crippe Restored.

Some two years ago I received a boy (Loma White) into the Orphans' Home, near Macon, from Columbus. He was one of the poorest creatures I have ever seen—nothing but skin and bone—crippled and deformed by scrofula, which had attacked him from birth. About eighteen months ago I commenced giving him Swift's Specific. After several bottles had been taken and no visible results to be seen, I began to despair, but continued the medicine. At last signs of improvement became apparent, and from that date to the present there has also been constant improvement in both body and mind. He is now about four years old, and is one of the brightest boys I have ever known. I honestly believe he will ultimately outrun the effects of this loathsome disease under the influence of Swift's Specific.

The two cases of erysipelas which were treated two years ago with S. S. S. show no symptoms of return of the disease.
